For my nieces Angel-May and Elodie. who LOVE books!

Let's say hello to the Woolly Crew.
They're bored and fed up; they've got nothing to do.
They're wondering what they can do today.
Something that's local and not far away.

Lamby suggests they go into the city
A city that's lively, fun and pretty.

day in Liverpool is right up their street.
Places to go and people to meet.

They jump on the train
nd are off down the track.
Whizzing past houses,
clickety-clack.

Two stops later,
they're at Lime Street.
The lambs are ready

the UK by Liverpool comedian, Ken Dodd

Two big birds look down from above.
Keeping an eye on the city they love.
Bella looks out towards the sea.
Bertie looks in, watching you and me.
